

I am adamantly against allowing banks to override my rights to privacy, as I have signed the NO CALL LIST. If I want to talk to my bank I will call them. If there is an overdraft, they will notify me by mail and charge me for it. (Doesn't happen, anyway). So there is no reason for a bank to call me. As in sales, ABSOLUTELY NOT! Solicitation is just that, no matter who is making the call. I get enough credit card junk mail from them as it is. I DO NOT WANT TO BE CALLED!
